Journals Catalogue

Spring 2021

Journals

"Journals are at the heart of academic publishing and we are proud to support the international social sciences community with our range of prestigious, critical and engaging titles. The continued development of Bristol University Press means we are building a coherent and influential list of not-for-profit journals with real world as well as academic impact."

JULIA MORTIMER, JOURNALS DIRECTOR

Our journals programme continues to go from strength to strength, with the list doubling over the past three years. We now publish 14 titles across the social sciences, many of them interdisciplinary in focus. We are delighted Policy & Politics had its highest ever Impact Factor of 3.069 in the 2020 Journal Citation Reports and the Journal of Poverty and Social Justice is now indexed in SSCI with a first Impact Factor of 0.952. The European Journal of Politics and Gender has just been accepted into Scopus and that the Journal of Gender-Based Violence and International Journal of Care and Caring are now included in the Emerging Sources Citation Index.

We have plans to grow yet further and are very excited to announce that Work in the Global Economy published in association with the International Labour Process Conference and Justice, Power and Resistance will launch with us in 2021.

Other titles are in development and we are planning a number of Open Access initiatives and Special Issues in response to COVID-19.

Ask your librarian to set up a free trial to any or all of our journals, visit bristoluniversitypress.co.uk/journals/subscribe for full details.

Publish with us

Journals are at the heart of academic publishing and we are proud to support the international social sciences community with our range of prestigious, critical and engaging titles.

As a not-for-profit publisher, we share many of the same values as the organisations and individuals we work with and we pride ourselves in our collaborative ethos and commitment to quality.

Our journals respond to some of the most pressing global social challenges that our societies face and, through cutting-edge research, aim to effect positive social impact.

Many of our journals are interdisciplinary and aim to encourage debate across academic boundaries. Our expansive journals list covers a broad range of social science disciplines, including Business and Management, Economics and Society, Law, Sociology, Politics and International Relations and Social Work.

If you think that your work aligns with our mission, find out more about publishing your journal with us or browse our Journals Author Toolkit to find out more about writing for our journals.

P

We are pleased to announce an exciting addition to the Policy Press journals list for 2021: Justice, Power and Resistance (JPR). JPR is the journal of the European Group for the Study of Deviance and Social Control and is currently published by EG Press. We are delighted to be relaunching the journal with a special double issue: Pandemics, Policing and Protest.

Justice, Power and Resistance is an international, peer-reviewed journal promoting critical analysis and connecting theory, politics and activism. Working towards social justice, state accountability and decarceration, the journal is primarily a vehicle to make accessible and advance challenging research and scholarship that can be utilised to critically inform contemporary debates and policies.

More information will be available on our website shortly.

Work in the Global Economy

Volume 1 | 2021, 2 issues

Published in association with the International Labour Process Conference

Editors in Chief: Sian Moore, University of Greenwich, UK and Kirsty Newsome, University of Sheffield, UK

Associate Editors: Donna Baines, University of British Columbia, Canada and Paul Brook, University of Leicester, UK and Rachel Cohen, City University of London, UK and Martin Krzywdzinski, WZB Berlin Social Science Center, Germany.

Managing Editor: Abigail Marks, University of Stirling, UK

Consulting Editor: Paul Thompson, University of Stirling, UK.

Editorial Assistant and Social Media Editor: Safak Tartanoglu-Bennett, University of Greenwich, UK

Online ISSN: 2732-4176

Frequency: Two issues per annum (May and October), with a double launch issue publishing in October 2021

"Amid the resurgence of interest in work and labour around the world, this new journal, with its impressive editorial team, is a promising addition to the field."

RUTH MILKMAN CITY UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK GRADUATE CENTER, USA

Work in the Global Economy is an interdisciplinary peer-reviewed journal that promotes understanding of work, and connections to work, in all forms and dimensions. This can mean a focus on labour processes, labour markets, labour organising and labour reproduction.

The Editors welcome wide-ranging contributions that extend and deepen connections between all aspects of the division of labour: from the production networks that underpin the global economy, to the gendered and racial divides that shape how work is allocated and organised.

Longitudinal and Life Course Studies

Volume 12 | 2021, 4 issues

Impact Factor: 1.000

Executive Editor: Heather Joshi, Institute of Education, University College London, UK

Section Editors: Janeen Baxter, Behavioural Sciences and Development, University of Queensland, Australia, Scott Montgomery, Health and Population Sciences, Örebro University Hospital and Örebro University, Sweden, Peter Elias, Social and Economic Sciences, University of Warwick, UK and Marc Scott, Statistical Sciences and Methodology, US.

Published in association with the Society for Longitudinal and Life Course Studies.

SLLS Society for Longitudinal and Life Course Studies

"Longitudinal and Life Course Studies provides a much-needed outlet for high quality interdisciplinary research on the life course. No other journal offers life course researchers as wide a range of disciplines, topics, and methods."

MARY CLARE LENNON, CITY UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK, USA

Longitudinal and Life Course Studies (LLCS) is a peer-reviewed journal dedicated to the needs of researchers studying the life course and using longitudinal methods at the interfaces of social, developmental and health sciences. It fosters cross-disciplinary and international endeavours and promotes the creation and exploitation of longitudinal data resources as well as their application to policy issues.

As the journal of the Society for Longitudinal and Life Course Studies (SLLS) it provides an opportunity for scholars at all stages of their careers to publish work crossing disciplinary boundaries which is often beyond the scope of more conventional, single-field journals.

Included in the Social Sciences Citation Index.

Global Discourse:

An Interdisciplinary Journal of Current Affairs

Volume 11 | 2021, 4 issues

Editor: Matthew Johnson, Lancaster University, UK

Deputy Editors: Shannon Brincat, University of the Sunshine Coast, Australia and Simon Mabon, Lancaster University, UK

North American Consultative Editor: Debra L. DeLaet, Drake University, US

Online ISSN: 2043-7897
Frequency: February, May,
September and November

“Global Discourse provides a valuable platform for the exploration and dissemination of the critical issues shaping our times. It should be read by everybody seeking originality, insight and reflection in exploring the key challenges faced by society from the global to the local contexts.”

CATHAL O’CONNELL, SCHOOL OF APPLIED SOCIAL STUDIES, UNIVERSITY COLLEGE CORK, IRELAND

Global Discourse is an interdisciplinary, problem-oriented journal of applied contemporary thought operating at the intersection of politics, international relations, sociology and social policy. The Journal’s scope is broad, encouraging interrogation of current affairs with regard to core questions of distributive justice, wellbeing, cultural diversity, autonomy, sovereignty, security and recognition.

All issues are themed and aimed at addressing pressing issues as they emerge. Rejecting the notion that publication is the final stage in the research process, Global Discourse seeks to foster discussion and debate between often artificially isolated disciplines and paradigms, with responses to articles encouraged and conversations continued across issues.

Emotions and Society

Volume 3 | 2021, 2 issues

Editors-in-Chief: Mary Holmes, University of Edinburgh, UK; Åsa Wettergren, Gothenburg University, Sweden

Co-Editor: Nathan Manning, University of Adelaide, Australia

"A very valuable addition to sociology and the study of society... edited by a highly qualified team it has already attracted ground breaking articles on the various interactions and relationships between emotions, individuals and their societies."

BENET DAVETIAN, UNIVERSITY OF PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND, CANADA

Emotions and Society aims to publish high-quality, original peer-reviewed articles which advance theoretical and empirical understanding of emotions in social life. It is associated with the European Sociological Association (ESA) Research Network on the Sociology of Emotions and seeks submissions from a wide range of international authors writing in this area. The sociology of emotions has developed unique perspectives on emotions that attend to their social construction and the ways in which they are embedded in social structures and inhere in social processes.

The Journal seeks to expand the largely unexhausted potential for developing innovative approaches not only to emotions per se, but to the social generally. All methodological approaches to studying emotions are welcome, but they should demonstrate rigour and be framed in ways that will be of interest to sociologically inclined scholars.

Journal of Psychosocial Studies

Volume 14 | 2021, 3 issues

Editors: Liz Frost, University of the West of England, UK and David Jones, The Open University, UK

Consulting Editors: Lynn Chancer, Hunter College, City University of New York, US, Stephen Frosh, Birkbeck, University of London, UK, Paul Hoggett, University of the West of England, UK, Neil McLaughlin, McMaster University, Canada and Candida Yates, Bournemouth University, UK

Regional Editors: Matthew H. Bowker, Medaille College, USA and Steffen Krueger, University of Oslo, Norway

Online ISSN: 1478-6737

Frequency: March, July and October

Published in association with The Association for Psychosocial Studies

"A much needed place to animate and inspire others in the field of psychosocial research and writing – a plenum of innovative ideas about clinical and critical theory, contemporary hermeneutics, and social philosophy."

CLAUDE BARBRE, CHICAGO SCHOOL OF PROFESSIONAL PSYCHOLOGY, USA

The Journal of Psychosocial Studies publishes work that falls within the broad transdisciplinary area of Psychosocial Studies, defined by a commitment to understanding the significance of the links between internal and external worlds. Psychosocial Studies draws on a range of disciplines to explore the interactive relationships between self, culture and society.

As the adopted journal of The Association for Psychosocial Studies (APS) it especially seeks to promote work that is interdisciplinary and considers issues of practice. The Journal of Psychosocial Studies provides space for research and writing that crosses the traditional boundaries between disciplines in the social sciences, humanities and the arts.

European Journal of Politics and Gender

Volume 4 | 2021, 3 issues

NOW INDEXED IN SCOPUS

Lead Editors: Jessica Fortin-Rittberger, University of Salzburg, Austria, Khursheed Wadia, University of Warwick, UK

Associate Editors: Phillip M. Ayoub, Occidental College, US, Althea-Maria Rivas, SOAS, University of London, UK, Emily St Denny, University of Copenhagen, Denmark

Consulting Editors: Isabelle Engeli, University of Exeter, UK, Liza Mügge, University of Amsterdam, the Netherlands

"Gender is everywhere in politics, but gender analysis is not. This much needed international journal is led by an outstanding group of gender scholars with a range of political specialties and perspectives. This new journal will soon be a must read!"

MYRA MARX FERREE, ALICE H. COOK, UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON, USA

The European Journal of Politics and Gender (EJPG) is a peer-reviewed journal that publishes international, cutting-edge research in the broad field of politics and gender. EJPG is endorsed by the Gender and Politics Standing Group of the European Consortium for Political Research (ECPR).

EJPG is firmly embedded in global politics and gender scholarship, and its scope is not limited to Europe. EJPG aims to advance gender and politics research in all its diversity. To this end it publishes articles in the wide field of gender and politics, including a variety of geographical and thematic foci, methods and epistemological traditions.

Journal of Public Finance and Public Choice

Volume 36 | 2021, 2 issues

Founding Editor: Domenico da Empoli (1941-2016)

Editor in Chief: Emma Galli, Sapienza University of Rome, Italy

Editor: Giampaolo Garzarelli, Sapienza University of Rome, Italy, IPEG University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg, South Africa

Advisory Editor: Stefano da Empoli, Roma Tre University, Italy

Print ISSN: 2515-6918
 Online ISSN: 2515-6926
 Frequency: April and October

“New technology and dynamic editorial talent, mark both the return of the Journal of Public Finance and Public Choice and a significant milestone in the history of transoceanic cooperation between scholars of Public Finance and Public Choice.”

J.R. CLARK, THE UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE AT CHATTANOOGA, USA

The Journal of Public Finance and Public Choice (JPFPC) was founded in 1983 by Professor Domenico da Empoli in the spirit of the Italian discipline of Scienza delle finanze. According to this approach, economic analysis should include individual motivations in non-market settings, political institutions, and collective decision-making.

Relaunched in 2018 in partnership with Bristol University Press, JPFPC is unique in the international landscape of public economics journals because it is committed to explicitly advancing knowledge in both public finance and public choice, reflecting an inclusive approach.

Policy & Politics

Advancing knowledge in public and social policy

Volume 49 | 2021, 4 issues

Impact Factor: 3.069

Editors: Oscar Berglund, University of Bristol, UK,
Claire A. Dunlop, University of Exeter, UK and
Chris Weible, University of Colorado, USA

Consulting Editor: Diane Stone, Central European University, Hungary, University of Canberra, Australia and Vrije Universiteit Brussel, Belgium

"Brings into focus two subjects that should be studied together. It provides a platform for informed, reflective and rigorously evidenced research and does so in a way that addresses issues that matter."

GERRY STOKER, UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHAMPTON, UK AND UNIVERSITY OF CANBERRA, AUSTRALIA

Policy & Politics is a world-leading journal that is committed to advancing our understanding of the dynamics of policy-making and implementation.

By exploring the interplay between political actors, governing institutions and policy issues, the journal contributes to theories of the policy process. By reflecting on the evolving context in which these interactions occur, it provides critical insights that are timely and cutting-edge.

Now in the Journal Citation Report's top 10 journals in Public Administration.

Print ISSN: 1744-2648

Online ISSN: 1744-2656

Frequency: February, May, August and November

“Evidence-based policy is the watchword today in many countries and with many international organizations. This journal is the place to explore its many meanings, how it is operationalized and how it works. A journal worth reading!”

PROFESSOR TOM COOK, NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY, USA

Evidence & Policy is the first peer-reviewed journal dedicated to comprehensive and critical assessment of the relationship between researchers and the evidence they produce and the concerns of policy makers and practitioners.

International in scope and interdisciplinary in focus, it addresses the needs of those who develop public policies, provide public services, provide the research base for evaluation and development across a wide range of social and public policy issues and those who are working to connect the two, such as knowledge brokers.

It provides cutting-edge research related to criminal justice, employment and welfare, education, environmental protection, finance, health, housing, international development, social care, and transport.

As well as more traditional research articles, the journal includes contemporary debate pieces and articles from practice and book reviews.

Journal of Poverty and Social Justice

Volume 29 | 2021, 3 issues

Impact Factor: 0.952

Editors: Rod Hick, Cardiff University, UK, Gill Main,
University of Leeds, UK

"The Journal of Poverty and Social Justice is clearly one of the best in the field, as I learned in preparing for my visit to the UK as UN Special Rapporteur on extreme poverty and human rights."

PHILIP ALSTON FORMER UN SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR ON EXTREME POVERTY AND HUMAN RIGHTS, NYU LAW SCHOOL, USA

Journal of Poverty and Social Justice provides an internationally unique forum for leading research on the themes of poverty and social justice.

Focusing on poverty and social exclusion, the journal explores links with social security (including pensions and tax credits), employment, area regeneration, housing, health, education and criminal justice, ethnicity, gender, disability and other social inequalities as they relate to social justice.

The Journal encompasses an original and exciting mix of scholarly research articles and lively policy and practice-oriented discussions of topical questions.

Interdisciplinary and international in scope, the journal is essential reading for academics, students, policy-makers and practitioners interested in poverty, social security, welfare and justice.

The Journal of Poverty and Social Justice welcomes submissions from those working in these areas across the globe. All research articles are peer-reviewed.

Critical and Radical Social Work

Volume 29 | 2021, 3 issues

Editor in Chief: Michael Lavalette, Liverpool Hope University, UK

Deputy Editors: Dimitra-Dora Teloni, University of West Attica, Greece, Charlotte Williams, Bangor University, UK

Critical and Radical Social Work: An international journal is an exciting journal that promotes debate and scholarship around a range of engaged social work themes.

The journal publishes papers which seek to analyse and respond to the latest issues in the field, such as the impact of global neo-liberalism on social welfare, austerity and social work, social work and social movements and the ways that social work intersects with inequality and oppression.

It welcomes contributions that consider and question themes relating to the definition of social work and social work professionalism, that look at ways in which organic and 'indigenous' practice can expand concepts of the social work project and that consider alternative and radical histories of social work activity.

As a truly international journal it actively encourages contributions from academics, scholars and practitioners from across the global village.

Voluntary Sector Review

An international journal of third sector research, policy and practice

Volume 12 | 2021, 3 issues

SCOPUS CITESCORE 1.1

Editors: Daiga Kamerāde, University of Salford, UK,
Carl Milofsky, Bucknell University, US and James Rees,
University of Wolverhampton, UK

"Voluntary Sector Review publishes outstanding research for academic, policy, and practice audiences. I especially appreciate VSR's efforts to publish work from a variety of research paradigms and perspectives."

ANGELA M. EIKENBERRY, UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA AT OMAHA, USA

Voluntary Sector Review is published by Policy Press in association with the Voluntary Sector Studies Network (VSSN). It publishes accessible, high-quality peer-reviewed papers on all aspects of the voluntary, community, civil society and third sectors.

A unique feature of the Voluntary Sector Review is the combination of papers aimed at academic, policy and practice audiences. This is designed to ensure that the results of the latest academic research are made available to the widest possible audience and are grounded in a close engagement with both policy and practical issues.

The Voluntary Sector Review is an explicitly interdisciplinary and international journal – the first to be European based. We welcome contributions from authors from all disciplines and all countries. We are interested in all aspects of voluntary, community, civil society and third-sector activity.

"This timely journal will provide an essential locus for work on contemporary family relationships. At last there is the space to create a critical mass of work in this important field."

CAROL SMART, UNIVERSITY OF MANCHESTER, UK

Families, Relationships and Societies (FRS) is a vibrant social science journal advancing scholarship and debates in the field of families and relationships. It explores family life, relationships and generational issues across the life course.

Bringing together a range of social science perspectives, with a strong policy and practice focus, it is also strongly informed by sociological theory and the latest methodological approaches. The title 'Families, Relationships and Societies' encompasses the fluidity, complexity and diversity of contemporary social and personal relationships and their need to be understood in the context of different societies and cultures.

The multidisciplinary approach of the Journal will provide a scholarly illumination not only of the complexity of the issue, but also offers a place for transforming knowledge into innovative responses."

PATRICK O'LEARY, GRIFFITH UNIVERSITY, AUSTRALIA

The Journal of Gender-Based Violence (JGBV), is the first international journal based in Europe to show case the work of scholars across disciplinary and topic boundaries, and from a range of methodologies.

The journal acknowledges both the breadth of gender-based violence (GBV) and its links to gendered inequalities.

It aims to continue to document the voices and experiences of victims and survivors of GBV, to publish work regarding those who perpetrate GBV and of the varied and complex social structures, inequalities and gender norms through which GBV is produced and sustained.

The journal recognises the intersection of gender with other identities and power relations, such as ethnicity, nationality, sexuality, faith, disability and economic status.

The Journal of Gender-Based Violence is published by Policy Press on behalf of the Centre for Gender and Violence Research at the University of Bristol.
