

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Evidence & Policy

Submission of articles

Authors should submit their article electronically to evidence-and-policy@kcl.ac.uk. The author's name and address should be on a separate page at the beginning of the article. Articles for the Research and Debate sections should include an abstract of not more than 100 words, four key words and be between 6,000 and 8,000 words in length excluding abstract and references. Articles for the Practice section should include an abstract of not more than 100 words and be between 2,500-3,500 words in length. Articles for the Sources and Resources section should be between 1,500 and 2,500 words.

Articles accepted for review are evaluated anonymously by at least two referees currently working in the field. The final decision on publication rests with the managing editors.

For editorial queries please contact evidence-and-policy@kcl.ac.uk

It is assumed that submitted articles have not been published elsewhere and that they are not under consideration for publication by other journals. The author should state whether s/he is publishing related articles elsewhere. Articles are considered for publication on the understanding that on acceptance the entire copyright shall pass to The Policy Press as Publisher of Evidence & Policy. Authors will be asked to sign a copyright agreement to this effect. All authors should agree to this assignment. For jointly authored articles the senior author may sign on behalf of co-authors provided that s/he obtains their written consent for copyright assignment. Where copyright is not owned by the author(s), eg where an article was written by an author in the course of his/her employment, the form should be signed by the copyright holder's authorised agent. The copyright assignment form and notes accompanying it will be sent by The Policy Press to the author with page proofs. For copies of the form and notes about assignment in advance please contact The Policy Press. Requests for permission to reproduce any part of papers published in Evidence & Policy should be addressed to The Policy Press.

Style

- British English spelling and punctuation is preferred.
- Non-discriminatory language is mandatory. Further guidance may be found in The Policy Press editorial guidelines (www.policypress.co.uk/PDFs/General/EditorialGuidelines.pdf – Appendix B: Sensitive language).
- Explanatory notes should be kept to a minimum. If it is necessary to use them, they must be numbered consecutively in the text and listed at the end of the article. Please do not embed notes in the text.
- Figures/diagrams/maps: please do not embed in the text. Files should be saved as one of the following formats: PostScript or EPS (encapsulated PostScript). Further information may be found in The Policy Press editorial guidelines.
- References: the Harvard system of referencing is used. Publications should be cited in the text, giving the author's surname and year of publication in brackets, then listed in full at the end of the paper. Book and journal titles should be in italics and should (apart from the first letter of the first word and of proper nouns) be set in lower case. Website details should be placed last. Please do not include dates of access to websites.

Example of book reference: Nutley, S.M., Walter, I. and Davies, H.T.O. (2007) Using evidence: How research can inform public services, Bristol: The Policy Press.

Example of journal reference: Sin, C.H. (2008) 'The role of intermediaries in getting evidence into policy and practice: some useful lessons from examining consultancy–client relationships', Evidence & Policy, 4 (1): 85-103.

Example of chapter within multi-authored publication: Levitas, R. (2000) 'What is social exclusion?', in D. Gordon and P. Townsend (eds) Breadline Europe: The measurement of poverty, Bristol: The Policy Press.

Example of website reference: CRD (Centre for Reviews and Dissemination) (2009) Systematic reviews: CRD's guidance for undertaking systematic reviews in health care, York: CRD, University of York, www.york.ac.uk/inst/crd/pdf/Systematic\_Reviews.pdf

---

Evidence & Policy is published by The Policy Press in association with the ESRC UK Centre for Evidence-based Policy and Practice at Queen Mary University of London.

Evidence & Policy is dedicated to the comprehensive and critical treatment of the relationship between research evidence and the concerns of policy makers and practitioners. It is both international in scope and interdisciplinary in focus.