

How to subscribe

Free online access for institutions in 2010

Voluntary Sector Review Volume 1, 2010
ISSNs Print: 2040-8056 Online: 2040-8064

Sign up for a FREE online subscription!

Voluntary Sector Review will be available online free of charge to institutions in 2010. Please visit www.policypress.co.uk/journals.asp for details of how to sign up.

2010 Subscription rates

Institutional online only: FREE in 2010

Institutional print and online: UK and Europe £290.00/€348, Rest of the World £319/US$470

Voluntary sector – UK online only:
FREE in 2010

Voluntary sector – UK print and online:
£140/€168

Personal – print only: UK & Europe £50/€60,
Rest of World £55/US$70

All prices subject to VAT

The journal is published in association with the Voluntary Sector Studies Network (VSSN) and a print copy of the journal is a membership benefit. Membership details for the Society are available from: www.vssn.org.uk/join.

Other Policy Press Journals and Journal Collections

Voluntary Sector Review FREE with 2010 Journal Collections!

The Policy Press publishes three other prestigious journals in public and social policy:

- Policy & Politics
- Journal of Poverty and Social Justice (formerly known as Benefits)
- Evidence & Policy

For further information on each of these journals see:

www.policypress.co.uk/journals.asp

The journals are available in collections which offer 10% discount on the cost of subscribing separately. In addition, this year Voluntary Sector Review will be included in the packages free of charge. For further information on these collections, see: www.policypress.co.uk/journals.asp.

The Policy Press, in association with the Voluntary Sector Studies Network, is delighted to announce the launch of this important new journal in 2010

FREE online for institutions in 2010

VOLUNTARY SECTOR REVIEW

An international journal of third sector research, policy and practice

Editor Peter Halfpenny, University of Manchester, UK

"The importance attached to the voluntary sector in European welfare states has continued to grow. Voluntary Sector Review's wide scope and European focus will be most welcome."

Jane Lewis, London School of Economics and Political Science

"Voluntary Sector Review will be a major opportunity for many of the growing number of researchers in the field to learn about and contribute to this area."

Jacques Defourny, Centre for Social Economy, University of Liège, Belgium President of the EMES European Research Network

NEW

Library recommendation form

To the librarian: I would like to recommend a subscription to Voluntary Sector Review Volume 1 2010. ISSNs Print: 2040-8056 Online: 2040-8064
A free online trial is available at www.policypress.co.uk/journals.asp

- I need to refer to this information frequently in my work
- This journal is directly related to my field and is an important for my research
- Students should have access to this information to best facilitate their course work and academic pursuits
- Other reason:

My details:

Name:	<input type="text"/>
Title:	<input type="text"/>
Department:	<input type="text"/>
Tel:	<input type="text"/>
Email:	<input type="text"/>
Signature:	<input type="text"/>
Date:	<input type="text"/>

“From a research perspective, I thoroughly welcome a journal that promises to publish high-quality research that has been rigorously peer-reviewed and carefully edited. The third sector needs a stronger evidence base.”

Martin Knapp, Professor of Social Policy and Director, Personal Social Services Research Unit, London School of Economics & Political Science

Aims and scope

Voluntary Sector Review is the first European-based journal to publish high-quality, peer-reviewed, accessible papers on third sector research, policy and practice. It will be an invaluable cutting-edge resource for all those in the fast-growing voluntary, community and wider third sectors.

The journal will cover the full range of issues relevant to voluntary sector studies, including:

- definitional and theoretical debates;
- management and organisational development;
- financial and human resources;
- volunteering and employment;
- regulation and charity law;
- civic engagement;
- social enterprise;
- evaluation and impact.

Voluntary Sector Review will cover voluntary sector studies from a variety of disciplines. The journal will include work from the UK, Europe and beyond. Voluntary Sector Review will also provide an essential forum for the exchange of ideas and new thinking.

Rigorous and stimulating, Voluntary Sector Review will be an indispensable tool for everyone who values empirically-grounded, theoretically-informed and policy-relevant reviews of the future direction of the voluntary sector.

Forthcoming highlights

- Bernard Harris, University of Southampton on Voluntary action and the state in historical perspective
- Pete Alcock, University of Birmingham on Defining the third sector
- Margaret Harris, Aston University, Birmingham and Patricia Young, Birkbeck College, University of London on Bridge-building activities at the grassroots
- Gareth G. Morgan, Sheffield Hallam University on Charitable status as a basis for the regulation of nonprofit accounting
- Ben Cairns, Romaine Hutchison and Mike Aiken, Birkbeck College, University of London on Voice and engagement
- Nick Acheson, University of Ulster in Northern Ireland on Evidence for the restructuring of relations between the state and the voluntary sector
- John Casey, City University of New York, Bronwen Dalton, University of Technology, Sydney, Rose Melville, University of Queensland and Jenny Onyx, University of Technology, Sydney on International experiences of strengthening government-nonprofit relations
- Rich Steinberg, Indiana University and Debra Morris, Cayman Islands Law School on Fundraising cost ratios

Practice articles will include

- Kevin Nunan on Governance
- Karl Wilding on Responding to the recession

Editorial team

Editor Peter Halfpenny, University of Manchester

Assistant Editor Pete Alcock, University of Birmingham

Assistant Editor Cathy Pharaoh, Cass Business School, City University, London

Practice Papers Editor Colin Rochester, Roehampton University

Policy Review Editors Chris Cornforth and Julie Charlesworth, Open University Business School

“When the research community is expanding rapidly, the sector’s role in practice is developing and policy makers are taking an ever closer interest, the launch of this journal is excellent news.”

Nicholas Deakin, Emeritus Professor, University of Birmingham

International Advisory Board

Helmut Anheier, University of California, Los Angeles USA

Rene Bekkers, VU University Amsterdam, The Netherlands

Carlo Borzaga, University of Trento, Italy

Jacques Defourny, University of Liege, Belgium

Alnoor Ebrahim, Harvard Business School, USA

Wendy Earles, James Cook University, Australia

Adalbert Evers, Justus Liebig University Giessen, Germany

Ben Gidron, Ben Gurion University of the Negev, Israel

Michael Hall, Imagine Canada

Ewa Leś, Warsaw University, Poland

Kym Madden, Queensland University of Technology, Australia

Lucas Meijs, Erasmus University, The Netherlands

Marthes Nyssens, Université catholique de Louvain, Belgium

Steven Rathgeb Smith, University of Washington, USA

Filip Wijkström, Stockholm School of Economics, Sweden

Annette Zimmer, Westfälische Wilhelms-Universität (WWU) Münster, Germany

Call for papers

Submissions are now invited for the following sections of the journal:

- Academic articles (7-8000 words). These may cover research and analysis of any part of the voluntary sector. Articles may include scholarly inquiry, research findings and applied analysis.
- Practice papers (1500-2000 words). Short contributions from practitioners commenting on governance, management, fundraising or operational issues.
- Policy reviews (1500-2000 words). Short commentaries on recent changes or new initiatives within the UK policy environment or other policy contexts.

In all three sections, contributions are welcome from the UK, Europe and beyond.

For information on submitting papers to Voluntary Sector Review, please visit www.policypress.co.uk/journals_vsr_ifa.asp or contact:

Peter Halfpenny,
School of Social Sciences,
Arthur Lewis Building
University of Manchester
Manchester, M13 9PL
Email: vsreditor@vssn.org.uk